Christmas Carol presentation interactive with audiences

The story of "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens is centuries old, and this Christmas the Onondaga Historical Association Museum and Research Center will give it a brand new shine. The OHA will host a holiday presentation of "Mr. Dickens, Mr. Scrooge and a Christmas Carol" at 2 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 26, at the historical association, 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse. (Distance from downtown Auburn: 28.5 miles).

This is an interactive interpretation of this age-old story narrated by Charles Dickens featuring Mr. Ebenezer Scrooge. Mr. Dickens returns to the Salt City 140 years after his initial visit during an 1869 American tour. He will be assisted in the retelling of his most famous tale with actors of OHA's performing troupe, The History Up Stagers. A Christmas exhibit will also be on display called "Toys From Our Childhood: The Psychedelic Sixties." The exhibit will feature fads and festivities from the 1860s and 1960s at the historical association.

Cost is $3 for OHA members and $5 for non-members. For more information or to make reservations, call 428-1864 ext. 312.
