

Civil War exhibit

Photo provided

A painting of a Union soldier by Sergeant George Sager, 149th (Fourth Onondaga) New York State Volunteer Infantry Regiment, will be on display at the Onondaga Historical Association Museum. Next year marks the beginning of the 150th anniversary of the American Civil War. The Onondaga Historical Association Museum will host a new exhibit drawing on collections from this momentous struggle. The exhibit utilizes paintings, prints, photographs and sketches made during the war by an array of individuals. The exhibit is supplemented by several original Civil War artifacts from the OHA collection. Visitors can view the exhibit from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesdays through Fridays and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays through July 18. The museum is located at 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse. For more information, call 428-1864 or visit www.cnyhistory.org.
