

OHA plans Halloween-themed events

The Man Behind the Curtain

Saturday, Oct. 29, 1 p.m.

OHA hosts a one-man performance of "The Man Behind the Curtain," written and performed by J.D. Newman.

The play follows of the creation of the Land of Oz, and the memorable characters Dorothy, the Scare Crow, the Tin Man, the Lion, and Toto as originally conceived by author L. Frank Baum.

The piece also details the personal journey of Baum, a native Syracusan and author, as he finds his way in the world, and enjoys commercial success with "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz."

Admission: OHA members, free; non-members, $5. Seating is limited. For reservations call (315)

428 1864 x312 (M-F), x321 (Sat.-Sun.)

Search for spirits at OHA's 1906 Bell Telephone building

Saturday, Oct. 29, 6 p.m., 7:45 p.m.

Join OHA, Syracuse Area Paranormal and The Paranormal Chef for an All Saints' Eve investigation of the nooks and crannies of OHA's 110-year-old Bell Telephone Building. SAP will provide an introduction presentation to teach how to use the equipment, which you will then be able to use on the investigation.

Searches start at 6 and 7:45 p.m. at the Onondaga Historical Museum. Tours last 90 minutes.

Admission: OHA members, $15; non-members,

$20. Adults only. Space is limited and reservations are required. Call (315) 428-1864 x312 (M-F) and x313(Sat-Sun)

Halloween Tailspins

Sunday, Oct. 30, 2 to 4 p.m.

This Halloween, treat yourself to a goody bag of tricks, ancient customs, strange happenings, and ghostly tales of Central New York all conjured up in this OHA special presentation.

It is a fun way to celebrate All Hallows' Eve for young and old.

Admission: OHA members and children 10 to 16, $5; public, $7.50. To make reservations, call 315-428-1864 x. 312 (M-F) x321 (Sat-Sun).