

GOOD TO KNOW

UPCOMING BOOK SIGNINGS

Author and musician Linda Pembroke Kaiser has written a book about Melville Clark, who was a notable figure in Syracuse's music world during his life (1883-1953). He was president of the family-run Clark Music Co. and one of the founders of a local symphony orchestra in 1921. The current Syracuse Symphony Orchestra was formed in 1961.

Kaiser will do a local book tour for "Pulling Strings: The Legacy of Melville A. Clark" (Syracuse University Press, $29.95) in June. She will sign books and talk about Clark at these locations:

■ 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. June 2, Onondaga Historical Association, 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse.

■ 6:15 to 6:45 p.m. June 10, Clark Music Co., 2922 Erie Blvd. E., Syracuse.

■ 7 p.m. June 17, Creekside Books & Coffee, 35 Fennell St., Skaneateles.

■ 7 p.m. Aug. 5, Barnes & Noble Booksellers, 3454 Erie Blvd. E., DeWitt.
