

Fundraiser for OHA set in Baldwinsville

The work of arts and crafts architect Ward Wellington Ward will be featured Friday and Saturday in Baldwinsville at a fundraiser for the Onondaga Historical Association.

The event includes a reception, dinner and exhibit of Ward drawings at Mohegan Manor, a building in downtown Baldwinsville he designed as the Odd Fellows Temple in 1910.

Tickets — $75 for a single, $125 for a couple — also entitle the holder to a tour of Applecrest, a Ward design, in Baldwinsville during November. More information is available at www.cnyhistory.org/events.html.
