

syracuse.com

CNY Call for Volunteers: OHA Museum, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Harborfest

Published: Monday, June 06, 2011, 9:48 AM Updated: Monday, June 06, 2011, 10:04 AM

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

OHA MUSEUM SHOP

The Onondaga Historical Association is looking for individuals to greet patrons, answer questions and run point of sale systems at the downtown museum retail shop. Training is offered; volunteers get a 10 percent discount.

When: Ongoing; shop opens July 13.

Where: 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse.

Contact: Matthew MacVittie, 428-1864 ext. 324 or matthew.macvittie@cnyhistory.org

MENTORING

Big Brothers Big Sisters, a program of P.E.A.C.E. Inc., is currently looking for volunteer mentors, especially males, for the many children who are on the waiting list. Volunteers should be 18 or older and have access to transportation.

When: Up to two hours per week.

Where: Throughout Onondaga County.

Contact: 470-3369 ext. 307 or www.bbbs-syr.org.

HARBORFEST

Volunteer opportunities include park manager, raffle ticket seller, floater, clean team, hospitality, memorabilia seller/cashier, parking attendant, park crew, trolley host/helper, information center and T-shirt workshop.

When: 4-hour shifts available from 9 a.m. to midnight, July 28 through 31.

Where: Office: McCrobie Building, 41 Lake St., Oswego. Venues are spread out along the waterfront.

Contact: Michael Petrilli, mpetrilli@oswegoharborfest.com 343-6858 or 342-7113. See oswegoharborfest.com for more information or to download an application.

United Way's Volunteer Center serves as a clearinghouse for local organizations. Visit www.unitedway-cny.org and click "Live United," then "Volunteer" to find an opportunity.

© 2011 syracuse.com. All rights reserved.