

Renovated OHA open to public Thursday

The Onondaga Historical Association on Thursday will open its renovated museum and new gift shop to the public.

Wednesday, a ribbon-cutting will be held at 321 Montgomery St., followed by a fundraiser from 3:30 to 8 p.m.

Fundraiser tickets are $45 for nonmembers; $40 for association members. For tickets, call Karen Cooney, 428-1864, ext. 312.

The museum will be open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday. Admission will be free. Parking at a garage at Montgomery and East Fayette streets is $2 for the first two hours.
