

SOCIAL LIGHTS

WINDOWS INTO THE PAST 07.13.11

PHOTOGRAPHS BY MORGANNE M. ATUTIS

1 Left to right, Pam Reilly, Carol Fletcher, Mary Cotter and Joanne Rauch enjoy the museum's new store during the gala, which was held following the ribbon cutting.

2 Left to right, Assemblyman William Magnarelli; Mark Peckham of New York State Office of Parks, Recreation & Historical Preservation; Ryan McNeely, representing state Sen. John DeFrancisco; Tom Burton, president of the Onondaga Historical Association's board; and Merike Treier, executive director of the Downtown Committee of Syracuse, reopen the OHA's museum, which underwent a major renovation and restoration project.

3 Left to right, Ann Scanlon; Gregg Tripoli, executive director of the OHA; and Jonathan Snow, president of the John Ben Snow Foundation's board.

4 Left to right, Tom Burton; Tom Riley, immediate past president of the OHA board; Pat Dalton, OHA board member; and Mark Peckham.

5 People gather inside the OHA's new store following the ribbon cutting.

