

“The Other New York: 2012,” or “TONY: 2012,”

is a communitywide, multi-venue biennial exhibition that is the result of a major collaboration among 14 art organizations in Syracuse. This project aims to highlight the rich talent of artists across Upstate New York, with a special focus on Central New York and the surrounding counties. “TONY: 2012” is organized by the Everson Museum of Art in collaboration with ArtRage Gallery, Community Folk Art Center, Erie Canal Museum, Light Work, Onondaga Historical Association, Punto de Contacto/ Point of Contact, Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Stone Quarry Hill Art Park, SUArt Galleries, Urban Video Project, The Warehouse Gallery, City of Syracuse and XL Projects. Major funding is provided by The Central New York Community Foundation through the John F. Marsellus Fund. Alternative art spaces in the form of freight containers will provide temporary exhibition/installation sites. The containers will be strategically located in the city to link arts venues and encourage visitors to walk and experience art along the way.
