

50th Anniversary Celebration Continues!

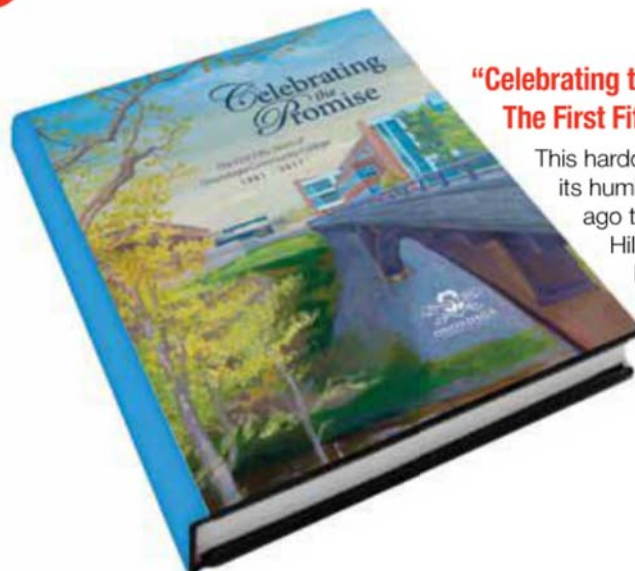

Onondaga Community College Librarian Vi Marcy (center) and her husband David Marcy, '64 (left), with former County Executive Nicholas J. Pirro (right) at the College's 50th Anniversary exhibit at the Onondaga Historical Association in February.

OHA Exhibit

Earlier this year, the Onondaga Historical Association hosted an exhibit commemorating Onondaga Community College's 50th anniversary. The exhibit featured hundreds of memorabilia including 50 years of photographs, College artifacts, educational equipment, historic flags, microscopes, uniforms, newspaper clippings, and student newspapers.

“Celebrating the Promise: The First Fifty Years of Onondaga Community College”

This hardcover book chronicles the College's journey from its humble beginnings in Midtown Plaza a half a century ago to its bustling 280-acre campus atop Onondaga Hill today. The book is available at the Barnes and Noble Bookstore on campus for $39.99.

Call (315) 498-2246 or go online at onondagacc.bncollege.com to order your copy.