

OHA AT 150

150 years ago three young ladies hatch a marital plan

The Onondaga Historical Association is celebrating its 150th anniversary and is helping The Post-Standard take a look back at some of the things that were happening around her in 1863:

Three young ladies announced through the columns of the Raleigh, N.C., Standard that they will provide clothes for three soldiers so long as the Civil War continues if the soldiers whom they select will consent to marry them when the war is over.

Also, the results of the Onondaga County town elections for the position of supervisor are posted, with the Republicans winning 13 towns and the Democrats winning six.

The train schedule: A train heading north departing from Syracuse at 7:40 a.m. would arrive in Baldwinsville at 8:15 a.m.

— The Onondaga Historical Association.