

MUSICOHA sponsors tour of church organs

The organs at four downtown churches will be featured Saturday on the annual Cathedral Square Neighborhood Organ Crawl, sponsored by the Onondaga Historical Association.

The tour begins at 1 p.m. at Park Central Presbyterian Church, 504 E. Fayette St. Gregg Tripoli, executive director of the OHA, will lead the tour. It will end with a reception and desserts provided by area restaurants.

At each church, visitors will learn about the church and its organ and an organist will performing a short concert.

In addition to Park Central Presbyterian Church, the tour includes:

- St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral, 310 Montgomery St.

- Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 259 E. Onondaga St.

- Plymouth Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, 232 E. Onondaga St.

Tickets are $10. Reservations and pre-payment are suggested. Call Karen Cooney at 428-1864, ext. 312. Tickets also can be purchased at the start of the tour.

— Melinda Johnson