

HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWS

Congratulations to The Town of Onondaga Historical Society on being chosen to receive the prestigious award of the Onondaga Historical Association (OHA) medal from the OHA. The medal was presented to the TOHS at the Genesee Grande Hotel on June 20, 2013 and was accepted by former Historian Jane Tracy on behalf of TOHS. The medal is awarded to "organizations for contributions made to the cause of preserving and interpreting our heritage".

The Town of Onondaga Historical Society (TOHS) will resume their monthly meetings for fall with some exciting programs. On Wednesday, September 18 at 7:00 PM in the Town Hall the meeting will feature Susanne Greenhagen, of Morrisville College. Susanne will be giving a presentation on "The Loomis Gang". It is a true story of Central New York's most notorious 19th century crime family.

On Wednesday, October 16 at 7:00 PM Gordon Kotars, Historian and past Chief of the Taunton Fire Department, will present the History of the Fire Departments in the Town of Onondaga.

On Wednesday, November 13 at 7:00 PM Pam Poulin, Ph. D., volunteer and docent for the Gage Foundation, will present the story of Matilda Joslyn Gage, suffragette and women's advocate.

Saturday, December 7th is our annual Holiday Tour and Luncheon. We will tour The Gage House in Fayetteville at 10:30 AM and then go to the Craftsman Inn for a delightful lunch where we can celebrate the Christmas season together.
