

thursday

BEST BET

THE ARTISTIC LEGACY OF BETTY MUNRO: Check out her work at the Onondaga Historical Association Museum, 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse. The late Munro could be seen painting in downtown Syracuse throughout the 1970s to the early 1990s. It will focus on her artistic diversity through the use of watercolors. All paintings will be available for sale. Free. Call 315-428-1864, or go to cnyhistory.org. Munro's painting of Syracuse City Hall is shown above. (Provided photo)