

sunday sampler

5 things to do around Central New York today

1

Pint rides start, end in Armory Square

Cheer on the riders who participate in a series of bicycle rides, including the Point to Pint Ride (100 miles), the Half Pint Ride (50 miles) and the Sampler (25 miles). All of the rides, which have various start times, begin and end at Empire Brewing Co., 120 Walton St., Syracuse. 315-446-6816, point2pint.com.

Cyclists leave Armory Square during the Point to Pint Ride sponsored by Empire Brewing Co. in 2013. (Kevin Rivoli / krivoli@syracuse.com)

2

Fish Cayuga Festival in Union Springs

The Fish Cayuga Festival, which includes the Bassmaster Elite Tournament, concludes today in Frontenac Park in Union Springs. There will be demonstrations and events, live music, food, beer, wine, crafts and more. Free admission. fishcayuga.com.

3

Comic Conversation at B'ville Library

Comic Conversation is at noon at Baldwinsville Public Library, 33 E. Genesee St., Baldwinsville. Sessions include panels on comics, fan art and anime/manga. Free. 315-635-5631, bville.lib.ny.us.

Majestic birds at Green Lakes

4

Learn about the majestic birds of Green Lakes State Park with wildlife rehabilitator Jean Soprano at 1 p.m. at the park, 7900 Green Lakes Road, Fayetteville. Included with park entrance fee. 315-637-6111, nysparks.com.

5

Betty Munro's downtown views

See "Watercolor Memories — The Artistic Legacy of Betty Munro" from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Onondaga Historical Association Museum, 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse. Munro painted in downtown Syracuse from the 1970s to the early 1990s. 315-428-1864, cnyhistory.org.

"A Dream Come True" (1976), from Civic Center series, by Betty Munro. (Submitted photo)