

College of Visual and Performing Arts and the Syracuse International Film Festival.

Where: Palace Theatre, 2384 James St., Syracuse

When: 5:30 to 7 p.m.

How much: Free and open to the public.

songs. The tour includes a full band, the Anotas Choir, bagpipers and dancers.

Where: Mulroy Civic Center Theaters.

When: 7:30 p.m.

How much: $39, $69 or $99. Buy tickets online via Ticketmaster.

» saturday

More than 40,000 people are expected to fill the Carrier Dome for the return of Monster Jam. The show will also feature Freestyle Motocross and Quad Wars.

Where: Carrier Dome, 900 Irving Ave., Syracuse.

When: 7 p.m.

How much: $25 for adults, $10 for children (ages 2-12). "Party in the Pits" will be held from 2-5 p.m. Pit Passes are $10. Get tickets at the Carrier Dome, online at ticketmaster.com or by phone at 800-745-3000.

» sunday

The Onondaga Historical Association will trace Italian immigrant history to the Italian-American present culture and examine the issues and impacts, past and present, of Italian immigration to the United States.

Where: Onondaga Historical Association Museum, 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse.

When: 2 to 4 p.m.

How much: Free and open to the public.

Entertainment concierge Katrina Tulloch serves up a host of ways to play in Central New York. Contact her at ktulloch@syracuse.com or follow her on twitter@katrinatulloch

Head to the SU campus for a special Mass at Hendricks Chapel, directed by the Rev. Calvar, director of the Chapel at the University of Massachusetts Lowell. The Mass of Remembrance at Myers Park United Methodist Church in N.C., in 2005. It is a Sacred Concert, featuring sacred elements from Hendricks Chapel. The University's jazz vocal group will perform at Syracuse Children's Church in New York and around the world. The performance will feature two new world premieres. Call 315-443-5044, or go to malmgren.

ART

Sip 'N Paint Class

Get your art on at 2 p.m. on March 8 at 101 Lake Drive, Liverpool. Join a diverse group of beginner artists in two hours while you sip. Call 315-234-9333 or go to