

sunday sampler

5 things to do around Central New York today

1

Tour Everson's 'Prendergast to Pollock'

Take the docent tour of "Prendergast to Pollock" at 2 p.m. at the Everson Museum of Art, 401 Harrison St., Syracuse. Included with exhibit admission, $5 to $10. 315-474-6064, everson.org.

"Fort George Hill" (1915), by Preston Dickinson, is included in "Prendergast to Pollock: American Modernism from the Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute" at the Everson Museum of Art. (Provided image)

2

Experience 'Salt City Rock' at OHA

"Salt City Rock: The History of Syracuse Rock 'n' Roll" is on display from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Onondaga Historical Association Museum, 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse. The exhibit covers rock 'n' roll in Syracuse from the 1950s to today and includes local memorabilia. Free. 315-428-1864, ext. 312, cnyhistory.org.

3

Take a hike at Clark Reservation

Enjoy an Easter Sunday afternoon walk with the Adirondack Mountain Club Onondaga Chapter at 12:30 p.m. at Clark Reservation State Park, Route 173, Jamesville. Wear sturdy shoes or hiking boots and bring snacks and water. Meet at DeWitt Wegman's Park and Ride to carpool to the park. Free. 315-637-6499.

Easter sunrise service at zoo

4

A sunrise Mass will be held at 6:30 a.m. in the upper parking lot at Rosamond Gifford Zoo at Burnet Park, 1 Conservation Place, Syracuse. It will be celebrated by the Rev. Jim Mathews, pastor of St. Lucy's Church. 315-435-8511.

Maple syrup time at Beaver Lake

5

It's the final day of maple syrup time at Beaver Lake Nature Center, 8477 E. Mud Lake Road, Lysander. A visit to Beaver Lake's demonstration sugarbush, open from 1 to 4 p.m., will introduce visitors to the heritage of sugaring and the production of maple syrup. Free with admission, $4 per vehicle. 315-638-2519, onondagacountyparks.com.

The sugar bush at Beaver Lake Nature Center near Baldwinsville is open from 1 to 4 p.m. for demonstrations. This year's maple sugar season is later than usual because of the unusually cold and long winter. (File photo / The Post-Standard)