

Crunch hockey, Syra Con: 10 things to do in CNY this weekend

Posted October 18, 2017 at 07:00 AM | Updated October 18, 2017 at 09:21 AM

21 shares

4 Comment

Crunch hockey, Syra Con: 10 things to do in CNY this weekend

By Jacob Pucci | jpucci@syracuse.com

Halloween spirit is in full swing in Central New York this weekend, so folks looking for a scare won't have to look too far. There's also a full slate of live theater and sports to keep everyone busy as well.

8p

OHA Historic Ghostwalk: Eastwood

The Onondaga Historical Association's series of historical ghost walks continues this weekend with a pair of walks through Syracuse's Eastwood neighborhood. Costumed actors portraying notable figures from Onondaga County's history will teach guests about their lives through a series of vignettes.

Where: Tour groups meet at 2649 James St., Syracuse.

When: Friday, Oct. 20 and Saturday, Oct. 21. Tours depart every 15 minutes from 6 to 8 p.m.

How much: $12 for OHA members, $15 for non-members. Register at cnyhistory.org.